

Announcement of Banthapthai Police Station
Regarding Anti-Bribery Policy And No Gift Policy from Performing Duties
For Fiscal Year 2025

According to the Organic Act on the Prevention and Suppression of Corruption B.E. 2561, Section 128, paragraph one, prohibits any government official from receiving any property or other benefits that can be calculated as money from anyone, in addition to property or benefits that should be obtained by law, rules or regulations issued under the power of the provisions of the law, except for receiving property or other benefits ethically according to the criteria and amount determined by the NACC and the Code of Ethics for Police Officers B.E. 2564, Section ๒(๒) Be honest and sincere, perform duties in accordance with the law and regulations of the Royal Thai Police Office with transparency, do not show behavior that is meaningful for seeking benefits improperly, be responsible for human rights duties, and be ready to be inspected and held accountable. Have a good conscience, consider society and Section 2(4) think of the public interest more than personal interest, have public spirit, cooperate, unite and sacrifice in doing good for the public and create benefits for society. In addition, the National Reform Plan on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct (Revised Edition) has specified important reform activities, Activity : Develop the Thai civil service system to be transparent and without benefits. Goal 1, Section 1.1, requires all government agencies to announce that they are agencies where all government officials do not accept gifts and presents of any kind from performing their duties (No Gift Policy).

Therefore, in order to prevent conflicts between personal and public interests (Conflict of Interest), accepting bribes, gifts, presents or other benefits that affect the performance of duties, the guidelines for anti-bribery (Anti-Bribery Policy) and not accepting gifts, presents or other benefits (No Gift Policy) from performing duties are specified, with details as follows:

Section 1 This Announcement

“Commander” means a person who has the authority and duty to command, supervise, monitor and inspect police officers under his command.

“Bribe” means property or other benefits given to a person to induce that person to act or refrain from acting in a position, whether such action is proper or improper.

“Performance of duty” means the action or performance of duty of a government official in a position who has been appointed or assigned to perform a particular duty or to act on behalf of a government official in a general or specific duty as a police officer as prescribed by law, or an action in accordance with the power and duty specified by law to have the power and duty of a police officer.

“Gift, present or other benefit affecting the performance of duty” means money, property, service or other benefit of value, including tips, that a government official receives in addition to salary, income, benefits from the government in normal cases and affects the decision, approval, permission or any other action in performing duties to be in a manner that corruptly benefits the giver of the gift, whether in the past or at the time of receiving or in the future.

Section 2 All levels of police officers shall act as follows:

2.1. Do not ask for, give or accept bribes, gifts, presents or other benefits from Perform duties

2.2. Do not consent or consent to family members giving or receiving bribes, gifts, presents or other benefits to those involved in performing duties.

2.3. Performing duties must adhere to law enforcement with fairness, prioritizing the benefits and image of the police. Do not perform any actions that conflict between personal and public interests, such as accepting gifts, presents or other benefits that affect the performance of duties, using government resources or evidence for personal gain, disclosing inside information, or misappropriating government time to do extra work, etc.

2.4 Reduce giving or receiving assets or other benefits ethically according to the criteria and amount determined by the NACC by using methods of expression by signing greeting cards, guest books, condolence cards or using social media instead of giving things.

2.5 Do not accept, tolerate or ignore behavior of accepting bribes, gifts, presents or other benefits from performing duties. If any violations are found, notify the superintendent/station chief as soon as possible.

Section 3 The commanding officer has the authority and duty to supervise, monitor and inspect police officers under his supervision. Comply with this announcement. In case of any violation of this announcement, report to the Superintendent/Station Chief as soon as possible.

Section 4. Anyone who finds any violation of this announcement can file a complaint/provide information directly through the Superintendent at Banthapthai Police Station or by calling 081-6539595 The information of the complainant/provider will be kept strictly confidential.

Section 5. In the event of receiving a complaint/provider of a violation by a subordinate personnel at the police station, the police will investigate the facts and, if any violation is found, the perpetrator will be punished in accordance with the relevant laws, regulations, and rules strictly. The matter will be forwarded to the next level of command.

Announced on March 11, 2025

Police Colonel

(Peeradach Charoensook)

Superintendent of Banthapthai Police Station